I.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Last year, on December 3, 2007, Genaro Smith-Baltiher was arraigned on a one-count indictment charging him with illegal re-entry after deportation in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1326. Trial is set for June 10, 2008. This afternoon, on June 4, 2008, defense counsel met with government counsel to discuss any remaining evidentiary issues regarding the trial next week. At that meeting, government counsel provided defense counsel with an exhibit list describing the government's proposed exhibit number five as the "Mexican Birth Certificate of Genaro Smith-Baltiher." At no time prior to June 4, 2008 has government counsel expressed its intention to offer such foreign document into evidence. Defense counsel has never received written notice of the government's intention to offer such foreign document into evidence.

The foreign document that the government intends to introduce is accompanied by a document that purports to be a "Certificate of Authenticity of Foreign Business Records." This document consists of a declaration by an employee of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service regarding the authenticity of the documents.

II.

THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD NOT BE ALLOWED TO OFFER THE FOREIGN DOCUMENT AT TRIAL

Under 18 U.S.C. § 3505, a foreign record of regularly conducted activity must be accompanied by a foreign certification in order to be admissible in a federal criminal trial. 18 U.S.C. § 3505(a).

"Foreign certification" means a written declaration made and signed in a foreign country by the custodian of a foreign record of regularly conducted activity or another qualified person that, if falsely made, would subject the maker to criminal penalty under the laws of that country.

18 U.S.C. § 3505(c)(2) (emphasis added).

"At the arraignment or as soon after the arraignment as practicable, a party intending to offer in evidence under this section a foreign record of regularly conducted activity shall provide written notice of that intention to each party." 18 U.S.C. § 3504(b) (emphasis added).

1 On June 4, 2008, the government provided defense counsel with an exhibit list for trial. The
2 fifth item on the list is described as "Mexican Birth Certificate of Genaro Smith-Baltiher." The
3 exhibit referenced by the government contains an attached declaration by an employee of the United
4 States Immigration Service attesting to the authenticity of the foreign document. The declaration
5 inexplicably suggests that the U.S. I.N.S. employee makes such declaration "with the understanding
6 that [he is] subject to criminal penalty under the laws of Mexico, for any, intentionally false
7 statements herein." The declaration does not indicate that it was "made and signed in a foreign
8 country," as required under 18 U.S.C. § 3505(c)(2), nor does it offer any explanation for why such 9 a declaration by an employee of the U.S. I.N.S. "would subject the maker to criminal penalty under 10 the laws of Mexico." 18 U.S.C. § 3502(c)(2).

11 This Court should not allow such exhibit into evidence because (1) the exhibit list is 12 insufficient written notice and no other type of written notice has been provided; (2) the insufficient
13 written notice is also untimely; (3) the exhibit is not accompanied by a valid foreign certification, as 14 defined under 18 U.S.C. § 3502(c)(2); and (4) the authenticity of the document is in question based
15 on other similar documents in the A-files of Mr. Smith-Baltiher and his mother that contain contrary
16 information.

17 III.

18 CONCLUSION

19 For the foregoing reasons, Mr. Smith-Baltiher objects to the admission of the foreign document
20 offered by the government and requests that this Court order that it not be admitted.

21 Respectfully submitted,
